

Position: Head Tennis Professional

Organization: Savitar has managed successful tennis programs at world-class clubs, hotels, and schools in Singapore since 1999. We have a growing team of international tennis professionals providing customized programs for juniors and adults of all skill levels. We provide opportunities for career development on and off the court and the possibility of promotion within our expanding network of facilities. Savitar also manages a Junior Team Tennis League, promotes a full holiday tennis camp schedule, and provides opportunities for traveling groups to train and/or compete internationally.

Position Overview: The Head Professional reports to the Director of Tennis at the club or hotel location at which they are assigned. He or she will be responsible for conducting private tennis lessons as well as group programs for junior players and adults. In addition, the Head Professional will assist the Director of Tennis with lesson planning, marketing, and event management as required. The Head Professional will receive ongoing training and the opportunity to develop his/her tennis career. Positions are available immediately.

Requirements: The Head Professional should have a passion for tennis, five or more years of relevant experience, strong coaching skills, and an internationally recognized tennis coaching certification. He or she must be service-oriented with strong communication skills. A natural ability to coach junior players is a definite plus as is a BA degree or equivalent from an accredited university. The Head Professional will be expected to work up to five and a half days per week depending on the program schedule.

Benefits: Competitive compensation package with stable monthly income and additional incentive payments based on performance. Opportunities for career development within Savitar's network of tennis facilities. Great lifestyle, excellent public transport infrastructure, and favourable Singapore income tax rates.
